

Carina Heights, Carina Heights

Quiet living in a tranquil setting.

This immaculately presented home across the road from the bush land reserve offers a perfect location for quiet family living. The bathroom has been recently renovated and 2 of the 3 bedrooms have built in wardrobes. The sun drenched kitchen with adjoining dining area is a good size and polished floorboards complete this package. A stylish yet practical outdoor entertaining area is a must in this climate and you will not be disappointed with this one. The potential for this home includes the options to raise and build under which would reveal city views or you can walk into this home and relax as there is nothing left to do. For more information please visit our website.
